

Safe Shelter in Gdańsk for women and children experiencing violence

The Women's Rights Center Foundation in Gdańsk runs a Safe Shelter where women experiencing violence, forced to leave their home due to the threat to their health and life or their children, can find a safe shelter. If:

- you feel threatened,
- you are concerned about your life or that of your children,
- you are in a crisis situation related to violence,
- you feel threatened in your current place of residence or are forced to leave it,
- you have been kicked out of your home by the abuser,
- you need support to make decisions about leaving the place you live in...

The project „Support for particularly vulnerable groups (i.e., groups excluded or at risk of exclusion from systemic solutions)” was co-financed by the City of Gdańsk.

Gdańsk Women's Rights Center Foundation, as part of a pilot project, provides safe shelter for women and their children experiencing violence who feel threatened in their current place of residence or are forced to leave it. WRC in Gdańsk provides a safe sanctuary for women experiencing various forms of violence: domestic (physical, mental, economic, sexual) and outside the family (trafficking in human beings, forcing to marry, forced prostitution, rape). The offer is also addressed to female citizens of countries other than Poland who live in Gdańsk.
